DRAFT- ALTAFF Committee Chair Roles & Responsibilities

Congratulations, and welcome to the world of ALTAFF Leaders!

As a new ALTAFF Committee Chair, it is easy to feel lost and unsure of your duties. This reference tool is intended to help you through the maze of information throughout your term(s) of office.

Getting started

If you do these 6 things, you will be ahead of the game:

- Get a calendar or organizer just for ALTAFF tasks and dates
- As soon as you receive an email or written material from ALTAFF or ALA, read it and note what needs to be done; don’t miss a deadline by putting something aside to deal with later
- Bookmark the ALTAFF website (www.ala.org/ALTAFF), and become familiar with the bylaws, and other current information on the site.
- Establish a good working relationship with the current committee chair and learn all you can from that individual

Useful information about ALTAFF

- ALTAFF is the Association of Library Trustees, Advocates, Friends and Foundations, one of 11 divisions of the American Library Association. The focus of ALTAFF is to help educate and support Trustees, Friends and Foundation members to help maximize their effectiveness on behalf of all types of libraries everywhere including their ability to be excellent library governors, fundraisers and especially advocates.

Active membership involves serving on ALTAFF-wide or ALTAFF Section committees and discussion groups. There are opportunities for virtual committee membership. ALTAFF has the following sections:

- Trustee
- Friend
- Foundation

Your office and what it entails

As a ALTAFF committee chair, you have agreed to a 1-year term. Your term begins immediately following the annual conference. You may choose to sit in on the committee meetings during the annual conference prior to your term to familiarize yourself with issues.

1. (June ALA annual conference – just before your term starts) Attend the ALTAFF Orientation for New Officers and Chairs at the Annual conference. Although you may already know what your duties are, attending this orientation will help to put the information in perspective and give you an opportunity to meet or at least recognize those you will need to know later, and to ask questions.

2. (July/August) Plan and coordinate the committee’s work for the year in accordance with the goals of ALA and ALTAFF.
   - Communicate with the past chair to determine ongoing projects and goals.
   - Organize how projects will be implemented, including timelines, deadlines, and resources.
3. (July/August) Contact your committee members and welcome them to the committee. This is the time to tell them about projects and expectations for the upcoming year.

4. (Prior to ALA Midwinter & Annual) Maintain ongoing communication with committee members and prepare for conference meetings. Set the agenda and organize the meeting.

5. (ALA Annual Conference)
   - Attend the Leadership Development seminar on Friday afternoon at Midwinter.

6. (ALA Midwinter & Annual) Chair your committee’s meetings.
   - Return post-conference reports and minutes to the ALTAFF office as soon as possible after the Midwinter Meeting and the Annual Conference.
   - Complete two mid-stream progress reports each year on forms that will be sent by the ALTAFF office.

6. (January/February) Recommend reappointment of effective committee members and suggest names of potential committee members to the ALTAFF president-elect. You might recommend someone as the next chair of the committee to the ALTAFF president-elect.

7. (After ALA Annual) Contact the new chair to discuss continuing projects and possible goals for the next year. Send the records of the committee to the new chair. Send archival records to the ALTAFF office.

Useful tips for the ALA conferences:

- Find the ALA Offices and the ALTAFF table – forms and information are kept here that you may need during the conference. You can also leave messages here for Board members and ALTAFF staff.
- Pick up a ALTAFF member ribbon from the ALTAFF table to attach to your badge, and take some for your committee chairs and executive committee members.
- Pick up ALTAFF membership forms, activity interest forms, and other information to take to your meetings.

Nothing in this Professional Services Agreement shall limit or prohibit NSLS from the continued use of any aspect of the NSLS Trustee Training and Certification program as outlined above. Nothing in this Professional Services Agreement shall preclude or prohibit NSLS from pursuing national trustee training courses or programs. It is the understanding and agreement of NSLS and ALTAFF that each organization shall cooperate with the other organization in the respective uses of said program, on a local, statewide, or national level. Executive Committee Meeting 1-Friday July 10, 2009

- Call to Order
President Peggy Barber called the meeting to order at 3:05 pm.

Board members present: Peggy Danhof, Peggy Barber, Rose Mosley, Rod Gauvin, Donald Roalkvan, Claire B. Gritzer, John Carson, Robin Hoklotubbe, Sally Reed, ALTAFF Executive Director and Beth Nawalinski, ALTAFF.

Peggy asked Sally to update the Board on ALTAFF:

Sally recapped Vice -President elect Rod Gauvin’s bringing together a group recently to Chicago in order to plan and implement a new direction for the new ALTAFF. The pre-panning session notes held in April are included in the ALTAFF board documents 2b.

- Review of Mission, Vision, Committee proposal
  The goal of the new mission and vision is to streamline committees, encourage effectiveness and make ALTAFF services available to all members whether they attend conferences or not. Work on better educating the “field” of lay supporters. A goal is to re-design committees to meet and reflect these goals. Group then referred and reviewed board documents 2a, 2b and 2c.
  Claire commented she liked board doc 2c. Others in attendance were in agreement.

  Sally proposed that the following be asked of all new and existing initiatives: “Does this add value to our membership?” Peggy Danhof said she thinks we need to have liaisons to groups such as the Freedom to Read Foundation. She said we need to stay involved in all these areas.

  Robin shared that explanations would be helpful at our next meeting regarding ALA committees and liaisons as some of us are not familiar with this term and objectives.

- Recap of Director’s Goal
  Peggy Barber. Referred to ALTAFF EB doc 1.

Meeting adjourned at 3:25 pm
ALTAFF Board Meeting I
Friday, July 10, 2009, 3:30 – 5 p.m.

• Call to Order
  President Peggy Danhof welcomed the group and called the meeting to order at 3:40pm. Peggy welcomed everyone to the meeting and invited everyone to introduce themselves.

  Board members present: Peggy Danhof, Peggy Barber, Rose Mosely, Rod Gauvin, Donald Roalkvan, Claire B. Gritzer, John Carson, Robin Hoklotubbe, Laura Salmon, Rod Wagner, Kay Runge, Barbara Prentice, Agnes Griffin, Claire Delaney, Charles Hanson, Cherine Janzen, G. Victor Johnson, Ed McBride, Jane Rowland, Mable Robertson, Anne Sterling, Ann Frabrizio, Nann B. Hilyard, Gwendolyn B.G. Welch, Tanya Butler, Sally Reed, ALTAFF Executive Director

• Peggy Barber wanted to officially thank Sally for all her hard work on the merger. She said that “marriage” is not a word but a sentence and that now we (FOLUSA and ALTA) are married! There was a round of applause in Sally’s honor. Peggy Danhof mentioned that ALTA was in dire straits with the Executive Director absence as one example. She said ‘now they are looking good with Sally and that they really are married’.

• Acceptance of minutes
  Kay Runge asked that minutes from FOLUSA be motioned by John Carson and that ALTA minutes be motioned from Don Roalkvan as they were instrumental in the merge. A motion to accept the minutes by John Carson and Don Roalkvan was moved and seconded by Claire Gritzer and Barbara Prentice. Motion carried.

• Election results and awards
  Peggy Danhof spoke about Trustee citations and awards. Shirley Bruuresema and David Goldsmith are the winners of the Trustee Citation Award. The Baker Taylor award will go to the Friends of Florence County Library in South Carolina. The Gale award for first time trustee is awarded to Elisa Bruce form Lexington, Kentucky. Peggy Danhof thanked the awards committee and Sally for their work.

• Discussion of Vision, Mission and New Committee Structure

  Sally shared that two weeks prior to a conference, a Board packet will go out to all and it will also be available online. Rod Gauvin said that work had been done on developing a vision and mission. The Vision: All libraries are well governed and fully funded. He sees our role is that of one that supports citizens who govern, promote, advocate and fundraise for all types of libraries. He would like to see our division be the ‘biggest and best’ division in ALA!

  A discussion on the budget was held. Sally shared that the FOLUSA operated on soft money prior to merger. The budget is on firmer ground now and expectations can be better met and that we now need to think of how we can get out to he lay people in the country. We should be in communication with COSLA (Chief Officers of State Library Agencies) –work closer with State Libraries. Sally recognized Rod Wagner (Nebraska Library Commission) as an excellent State Library Organization. We need to expand member services for this type of an organization.

  A discussion to create talking points to keep Board and members informed as to what ALTAFF is about and its goals was held. “Guiding principles” were discussed. Several people agreed that we should look at tightening the structure up. Committees should exist to meet the needs of members across the country, not just those who attend conference. “A lot of committees can sink a staff” was a sentiment that most agreed with. It was shared that we should consider combining three committees going forward - Legislative, Advocacy and Library Issues committee – as a “National Library Issues” committee.

Clare Delaney had a question about Publications and Services. She asked what happens with all the effort and hard work put into previous publications? How will these materials be distributed in the future? Sally said these publications are still available and are now accessible on the ALTAFF website.

Agnes Griffin contributed that there are many board members out there involved with Foundations and that they not be forgotten. Sally responded that Peter Pearson would like a “place holder” on this topic as we develop this piece in the new structure. Rod Gauvin suggested charging Peter Pearson with an outreach for a Foundation section of ALTAFF. Sally shared that there are potential partnerships with Academic Development directors and Foundations as well and that we should speak with Sam Huang.

Peggy Danhof congratulated Sally for organizing the Wait, Wait event with Paula Poundstone. This event raised $5,000 for ALTAFF (netted $4,000) and the exposure was priceless!

Robin Hoklotubbe shared that she overheard conference attendees talking about the Wait, Wait event and how much fun they had.

- Recap of ALTAFF events at conference:

Peggy Danhof gave an overview of upcoming meetings and programs at conference and invited everyone to the Sunday 4 pm Board champagne toast with Paula Poundstone.

Peggy Danhof shared that a handbook is being developed by ALA and invited suggestions for the handbook be directed to Sally.

Roberta Stevens (ALA executive Board/Library of congress and incoming ALA President-elect) was welcomed at 4:50 pm to share with the group. Roberta shared that 14, 00 plus had pre-registered for the conference so far and that the number for 2009 Annual are in line with 2008 which was a well attended conference. Membership is an area of concern for ALA as other associations in the country are experiencing decreases as well. In the past we were around 67,000+ members in ALA and we are at around 60,000 . She went on to share that ALA revenues are experiencing shortfalls especially in publications and conferences requiring staff furloughs.

In early September, there will be a planning retreat for division directors. Our input is encouraged. She said it is very clear that we make opportunities for libraries to participate in conference. They are looking into streaming video technology to keep libraries connected with ALA conferences. There was some controversy at Mid-Winter regarding library education and core-competencies. ALA is looking at recommendations and accreditation. Peggy Barber commented that we (ALTAFF) should plan to discuss ways to support the Campaign for American Libraries. She asked how we can encourage the citizen voice to make a difference. Peggy Danhof thanked Roberta for joining us.

Peggy Danhof adjourned the meeting at 5:00 pm.

  Peggy Danhof and Peggy Barber reviewed and summarized the Presidents report (BD Doc 5)

• Directors Report
  Sally unveiled and distributed the new, newsletter for ALTAFF; “The Voice” and thanked Jillian and Beth who worked on it. She shared that the new website is still being developed and it will take a bit longer to launch. Plans to build the Trustee section are under way. The general “design” of the website is completed. She stated that the budget is a little down.

  The Wait, Wait – Don’t Tell Me fundraising event generated about $5,000 for ALTAFF and the Author Tea proceeds are expected to be about $7,000 - $8,000. Sally went to report that expenses haven been kept down in general. Paula Poundstone will be joining us again in 2010 for Laughs On Us and as the National Spokesperson.

  Sally referred to DOC 6b and 6c regarding membership. She shared that membership has remained stable for both groups. Sally reminded the board that at 4 pm today there is an ALTAFF champagne toast with Paula Poundstone and all are invited!

  Susan Schmidt recognized both Sally and Beth for their remarkable job and efforts with the merge. The Board also recognized and acknowledged their efforts. Don Roalkvam shared that exhibit space is down 12% but new exhibits are up 5% at conference. Laura Salmon volunteered to assist with budgeting items and the new budget for ALTAFF. Election schedule was discussed. G. Victor Johnson asked that if anyone wants to recommend anyone for council-at-large, kindly let him know. Peggy Danhof reminded board to vote.

• PLA Report
  Don Roalkvam shared that ALTAFF will have a program at the 2010 PLA conference. It will be about Trustee orientation

• Division Councilors Report
  Shirley Bruursema reported that the council is the quietest it has been for 6 years. Big issue: Charge or not for scooters at conference. A resolution was discussed whether or not to send books to soldiers. Shirley reported that eight Trustees are on ALA committees.

• Discussion of Vision, Mission and Committees
  Peggy Danhof shared that Rod Gauvin brought a group together in Chicago that included immediate and past officers and looked at a pre-planning process for ALTAFF. Refer to document 2B (early draft).
The Citizens for Libraries tag line has been received positively. Sally further explained DOC 2b and the talking points.

- Committee Issues and Information

Peggy Danhof began a discussion on new committee structure. She reminded us to keep in mind that we are losing a day at conference and we should look at combining committees and programming as much as we can. Sally said she will be looking at streamlining and maximizing staff time and resources. She also reminded us as we move forward, to keep Trustees and Friends who do not attend conference in mind. The new model of committees and their goals should be focused on sharing what we learn and develop by way of articles and reports. She feels that our “external focus” should be the guiding principal as move ahead with the new committee structure.

Peggy Danhof discussed the new ALTAFF org chart. She said we are in a growing and developing stage. Discussion on ALTAFF leadership will be held at mid-winter. The meeting was then opened up for committee ideas and development to the board.

Debbie Miller suggested that the Intellectual Freedom needs to be separate from Advocacy. She does not agree with cross-pollination. She thinks Intellectual Freedom needs separate attention. Mary Lee Davis said that advocacy can be “smushed in” to everything we do. We are all advocates and would like to separate out Intellectual Freedom.

Rose Mosley thanked everyone for the lively discussion and shared that when some were appointed, they were notified about changes in committee operations. She said that she would have appreciated comments earlier so these issues could have been addressed beforehand.

Debbie Miller said that she was not aware that committee descriptions could be challenged. Agnes Griffin supports separating legislation, intellectual freedom, and advocacy committees as well. Laura Salmon said that there is not a perfect organization. She shared she comes from the corporate world. In her experience, we need to start somewhere and give it a try. We can then adjust as work into it.

Peggy Danhof said she has had various liaisons that will work on keeping positions in place. Debbie Miller responded that she will accept whatever the board agrees upon as long as it is board member driven which works better than staff driven.

Action: Peter Pearson moved to accept committee structure as presented. Susan Schmidt seconded.

Point of Order: Sally recommended adding Intellectual Freedom/Washington Office to Legislative, Advocacy and Library Issues committee.

Vote: Motion carried.

- New Business

Peggy Danhof reminded the board that there is no compensation from ALTAFF for speakers for special programs. If there is something coming up and we need to negotiate a deal, please bring this to the board. We need to try to keep attendee cost down as well. No expenses will be given without board support and approval. She said that a task force could be established to develop guidelines for this.

Margie Schuster asked if ALTAFF staff and Board speaking fees going forward will go to ALTAFF. Sally said that this will continue. She went on to share that $12,000 - $15,000 a year is generated from speaking fees in the past.
Nann suggested that policies be part of leader orientations. Peggy Danhof said that this was a good idea and thanked Nann. She went on to add that perhaps Rose can work with a task force on developing a policies and procedures manual.

Debbie Miller shared that May 2 is national Privacy Week and asked whether ALTAFF would like to be involved. She said she needs a plan by the end of July. Peggy Danhof asked her to write a proposal. She agreed to send one to Rose and Sally.

- Turning over the Gavel

  Peggy Danhof said she has a great time and thanked everyone for their hard work. She said it has been challenging but feels good about the results. She says she can finally see the light at the end of the tunnel and that this is for sure the way to go! Peggy Barber added that this will be a great marriage.

  Peggy Danhof officially installed Rose Mosley as the new ALTAFF President.

  On behalf of the staff, Sally Reed recognized Peggy Danhof, Peggy Barber and Don Roalkvam for their efforts this past year and gave them a token of appreciation in recognition of their service. Rose Mosley accepted the gavel saying, “Let us start as a team! Together Everyone Achieves More!” She said that she is excited for this new group and to begin working with everyone.

  She ended with “We are going to be the best ALA has!” Rod Gauvin recognized that we had two great organizations. He is looking forward to working together. New ALTAFF president Rose Mosley then asked everyone to introduce themselves and comment a bit about themselves.

- Meeting adjourned at 9:45 am

  ALTAFF Executive Committee II meeting
  Sunday, July 12, 10-10:30 a.m.

- Call to Order
  President Rose Mosley called the meeting to order at 10:00 am.

- Unfinished Business

  Shirley Bruursema said that there is a conflict of meetings and we need to do better at future conferences. Peggy Danhof asked if we can all come together on this and work on it. Shirley suggested that we centralize meetings and create a master schedule that can easily be coordinated. A discussion was held and the consensus was that this is something that we would work on. Don Roalkvam commented that conflicts in programs will most likely continue especially given the reduced ALA conference schedule.

- Meeting adjournment at 10:30 am

  Respectfully submitted,
  Robin Hoklotubbe, ALTAFF Secretary

Karl Marlanteres is a graduate of Yale University and was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University. New Initiatives

Working with various units of ALA, the following initiatives have been developed (implementation dates included):

- Trustee Academy – online courses for Trustees will begin in the fall. The curriculum is designed to be comprehensive and those taking and meeting minimum requirements will receive a certificate of achievement from ALTAFF. (October 1, 2010 expected launch date).

- In conjunction with the Office for Intellectual Freedom: “Controversial Materials in the Library: Supporting Intellectual Freedom in Your Community.” This webinar will cover the basics of intellectual freedom in libraries, collection development policies, procedures for handling challenges to library materials, and tips on responding to controversies that may arise. Instructor: Angela Maycock, OIF Assistant Director.

  This one-hour session will be offered three times in February 2010. Registration is limited to 60 participants per session.

  - Wednesday, Feb. 17, 4:00-5:00 p.m. EST
  - Tuesday, Feb. 23, 2:00-3:00 p.m. EST
  - Friday, Feb. 26, noon - 1:00 p.m. EST

Cost: $49 individuals; $39 ALTAFF members; $95 group of two or more attendees at the same location.

Learning objectives:

1. Participants will understand key concepts of intellectual freedom and collection diversity as embodied in ALA policy
2. Participants will gain a new framework for evaluating potentially controversial materials in library collections
3. Participants will take away information and talking points to help deal with controversies surrounding library materials

- ALA Presidential Award for Advocacy Sponsored by ALTAFF. The first award goes to the Florida Library Association and will be announced at the Opening
General Session at the Annual Conference 2010. Awardees are selected based on engagement of citizens for advocacy and success in meeting their advocacy goal.

ALTAFF Budget

The ALTAFF budget ending in August 2009 was short in both revenues and expenses. Due to the lower than predicted expenses and the addition of FOLUSA funds, ALTAFF ended the year with a net asset balance of $164,090 and a net fund balance of $65,702. This net fund balance gives ALTAFF some breathing room and allows us to engage in some modest new initiatives as well as build a good reserve fund.

The budget for 2011 has been submitted and is included as Board Document #9. Due to problems with ALA’s computing, we do not have current information on tracking for the first quarter of fy 2011.

Membership

Membership for Trustees and Friends remains stable (see Board Documents #10a, 10b). A direct mailing went out in early December but due to some errors in Membership services, it apparently went bulk (as opposed to the agreed upon first class) and to Boards of Trustees v. director. This, unfortunately, meant that the mailing hit boxes during the holiday break and did not go to the operational decision maker – i.e. the director. The responses are due to come back to the Philadelphia offices so we will be able to assess the effectiveness of this campaign.

Public Service Award and Legislative Day

For one year only, Library Advocacy Day will replace National Library Legislative Day (NLLD). On Tuesday, June 29, 2010, library advocates from all 50 states and Washington, D.C. will meet at Upper Senate Park on the U.S. Capitol grounds. The event, which will begin at 11 a.m., will feature guest speakers, photo ops, and a chance to cheer on libraries! After the rally, participants will meet with their elected officials and their staffs.

As has been our tradition, we will work with the Washington Office to select the congress person who has done the most to advance the cause of libraries to honor with our ALTAFF Public Service Award. The award will be presented during the day’s festivities.

Respectfully submitted,

Sally G. Reed
Executive Director

Spectrum Scholarship Program & Spectrum Presidential Initiative

About Spectrum

Established in 1997, the Spectrum Scholarship Program is ALA’s national diversity and recruitment effort designed to address the specific issue of under-representation of critically needed ethnic librarians within the profession while serving as a model for ways to bring attention to larger diversity issues in the future. Spectrum’s mission is to improve service at the local level through the development of a representative workforce that reflects the communities served by all libraries in the new millennium.

To be eligible for a Spectrum Scholarship:

- Applicant must be a citizen or permanent resident of the U.S. or Canada.
- Applicant must be American Indian/Alaska Native, Asian, Black/African American, Hispanic/Latino or Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander.
- Applicant must attend an ALA-accredited graduate program in library and information studies or an ALA-recognized NCATE School Library Media program.
- Applicant shall have completed no more than a third of the credit requirements toward her/his MLIS or school library media degree at the time of award, June 1st.
- Applicant must be enrolled in an accredited program and begin school no later than September 1st or the Fall Semester immediately following the award.
- Applicants may have full or part time status.

The Spectrum Scholarship is valued at $6,500 and includes a $5,000 scholarship (divided into two payments); attendance at the Spectrum Leadership Institute, a three day institute held ahead of the ALA Annual Conference; and membership in the American Library Association.

To date, over 600 scholarships have been awarded to qualified applicants pursuing a Masters in Library and Information Science.

Current Funding for Spectrum

Upon its establishment in 1997, ALA committed resources for 50 annual scholarships of $5,000 a year for Spectrum’s first four years. The Spectrum program continues to fund scholarships through the initial endowment and the generous contributions of individuals and organizations whose donations support named scholarships in the Spectrum Family of Funds.

As of June 30, 2009, the value of the Spectrum Endowment was $2.7 million.

To provide an overview of how the Spectrum Scholarships are funded annually, below is the funding breakdown for FY 2009 scholarships:

10 Scholarships funded by the ProQuest Scholarship Bash
2 Scholarships funded by the Medical Library Association/National Library of Medicine
1 Scholarship funded by the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA)
1 Scholarship funded by the Betty Turock Endowment
1 Scholarship funded by the William Gordon Endowment
10 Scholarships funded by the Spectrum Endowment
25 Scholarships funded by the IMLS REACH 21 Grant

Through a three-year REACH 21 grant, IMLS has funded 25 scholarships a year in 2008, 2009 and 2010. The IMLS is an independent federal grant-making agency dedicated to creating and sustaining a nation of learners by helping libraries and museums serve their communities. ALA will announce its final 25 REACH 21 scholars in June 2010. ALA will pursue another IMLS grant to support Spectrum Scholars past 2010, but this funding is not guaranteed and cannot be counted on to fund the future of Spectrum.

Spectrum Overview Demographics (all percentages based on 606 recipients from 1998-2009 who have completed a full scholarship year)

For 2008-2009 146 completed applications, 68 awarded
For 2007-2008 167 completed applications, 80 awards
