

YALSA Board of Directors Meeting

2020 Symposium:

The 2020 YA Services Symposium will be held virtually November 6-8, 2020.

- Registration will open this Summer.
- Learn more at <http://www.ala.org/yalsa/yasymposium>
- The theme is Biggest Little Spaces: How Libraries Serve the Expanding Worlds of Teens. Through inclusive programming, diverse collections, outreach, advocacy, and partnerships, libraries offer safe spaces for teens. Do your programs and services meet the complex and diverse needs of contemporary young adults? Does your teen section or YA collection need a refresh? Have you found partnerships to encourage and advocate for young adults? Join YALSA for our 10th Symposium in Reno, Nevada as we discuss the literature, activities, and the biggest little places needed to serve and inspire today's teens.

2021 Symposium:

The 2021 Symposium will be scheduled to take place in Reno, Nevada, since YALSA was unable to hold the event in Reno as scheduled for 2020.

2021 Midwinter

- Midwinter will be held in Indianapolis January 22 - 26
- Registration and housing will open in Oct.
- The Morris & Nonfiction Award event typically draws around 200 attendees. Ticket prices are $25.
- We will continue to seek sponsors, including the BFYA Teen Luncheon. Sponsorship is $750 and enables each publisher to bring 2 authors to visit with local teens.

2021 Annual

The event will be in Chicago June 24-29, 2021

- Registration and housing will open in Feb.
- Information about YALSA at the conference will be posted in July
- The call for program proposals normally opens in June