

YALSA Board of Directors
ALA Midwinter Meeting 2021
January 22-26, 2021

Topic: 2021 Board Development Committee Roster

Background: According to the YALSA Bylaws, the roster must be submitted to the Board at Midwinter. Also according to the bylaws, one person serving on the Board Development Committee must have served in the prior year and no more than three committee members may be members of the board. Be sure to let these individuals know if you are interested in running for office or if you want to recommend someone for them to consider for a particular office. Among their responsibilities is to develop a slate for the 2021 election. In 2021 YALSA will be electing a President Elect, a Division Councilor, and two Board Members At Large. The roster below has been put together by Kelly Czarnecki.

2021 Board Development Committee Function Statement:

To develop in conjunction with the Board of Directors activities and materials for: board orientation, on-going board training, and annual board member self-assessments and board assessments. In conjunction with the Board help create Board roles and responsibilities and assess board effectiveness. To pay attention to board composition and needs. To identify and cultivate members for leadership positions, and to annually develop a slate of candidates for board positions. When building the slate, seek out the most qualified individuals and provide for broad representation, including but not limited to representation of the membership by: diverse background, type of library, special interest, and geographic location, being sure to incorporate diversity as defined by ALA/YALSA. To educate members about governance and service on the YALSA Board, including conducting necessary outreach via an array of avenues like social media, blogs, newsletters, and partnership with other organizations to ensure diverse representation. To assist candidates in preparing for the election, including but not limited to planning and implementing a candidates' forum at the Midwinter Meeting and candidate interviews for posting on the YALSAblog. To review the process after each election and make recommendations for the next cycle.

Size: 7- 9 virtual members, who have governance experience, including the chair. At least one member will have served on a recent Board Development Committee, and no more than three committee members may be current members of the Board. Term: January 1 through June 30 of the following year.
