World on the Move 2022

American Library Association

I. Instructions
The ALA Public Programs Office, in collaboration with the American Anthropological Association (AAA) and the Smithsonian’s Center for Folklife and Cultural Heritage, invites applications from public libraries interested in hosting the traveling exhibition World on the Move: 250,000 Years of Human Migration.

Prior to beginning your library’s application, please read the complete Project Guidelines.

ALA will accept applications for World on the Move between October 10 and November 14, 2022.

Project Name*
To begin, please complete the field "Project Name" below by typing the following four-letter response in the text box: WOTM

II. Project Director Information
The Project Director is the person who will be responsible for coordinating the traveling exhibition display in the library. They will be the primary point of contact for the project at the library, and will attend the virtual orientation workshop, to be held in February 2023.

IV. Proposal Narrative
This section contains eight required narrative questions. Note that your response for each question is limited to 1,000 characters (approximately 200 words). Please respond to all elements of each question.

1. Community*
Describe why your location is ideal to host this exhibit. In your response, please consider community interests and demographics; local history, collections, or other resources pertinent to the project. If relevant, summarize briefly your library's experience with programming on topics related to exhibit themes.

Character Limit: 1000

2. Benefits and Goals
What does your library hope to accomplish by bringing this exhibition to the community? Why would your community benefit from public conversations about the history of human migration? In your response, describe why your library would like to participate in this project and how the exhibition relates to your institution's mission.

Character Limit: 1000

3. Audience and Outreach
Describe your target audiences and how you will reach them with the exhibition and programs. How will you maximize engagement with the World on the Move exhibition and participation in related programming? Note: this exhibit is intended for middle and high school aged youth.

Character Limit: 1000

4. Anticipating Challenges
Do you anticipate any resistance and/or challenging conversations in your community related to the exhibition themes? How will you approach possible challenges? What is your library’s experience facilitating challenging conversations in your community?

Character Limit: 1000

5. Program Plans
Participating libraries must deliver a minimum of three distinct public programs related to the exhibition, such as workshops led by experts on the exhibition themes, hands-on activities, book discussions, school class tours, or an opening event for the exhibition. Describe the programs you plan to implement. Be creative and specific about your program ideas and presenters. Include names and qualifications of potential external (non-library staff) presenters. If you wish, please attach letters from potential program presenters in the uploads section of this application.

Character Limit: 1000

6. Display Plans
Where will the exhibition be displayed in your library? Please describe the space and its relationship to the main traffic flow in the library.

Do you plan to supplement the display with additional items from your own collection, or the collections of a partner organization? Do you have plans for any passive programming to coincide with exhibit?

Though optional, it is strongly recommended that you attach a floor plan and photos of the display space in the uploads section.
7. Partnerships*
Collaboration with local organizations—such as schools, youth centers, parent groups, higher education, historical societies, nonprofit social service providers, faith-based institutions, and Smithsonian affiliates in the area—is important to the success of this project. Describe any relevant partnerships you currently have, and any new ones you plan to pursue. Note any long-term relationships you have that might prove beneficial to the effort to recruit middle school and high school aged participants for programs and attending the exhibit. If you wish, please attach letters from potential program partners in the uploads section of this application.

8. Outcomes*
How do you plan to measure outcomes of the World on the Move exhibition at your library?

V. Exhibition Scheduling Preferences
Please consider each of fifteen available exhibition host periods. For each period, indicate either “Preferred” (denoting your top choice), “Yes” (denoting periods that your library is able to host the exhibition), or “No” (denoting periods that your library is unable to host the exhibition). Please note that the exhibition organizers cannot guarantee that you will receive one of your preferred display periods.

VIII. Review and Submit

Please review your application to ensure a complete submission. Once you have completed your review, click "Submit" in the bottom right corner of your screen.

You cannot make changes to your application once it has been submitted. The online application form must be submitted by the deadline on November 14, 2022, at 11:59 PM CST. Late or incomplete applications and applications from reviewers whose institutions are applying for the corresponding grant opportunity will not be reviewed.

Ensure you receive messages regarding your application! Emails regarding your application status will come from administrator@grantinterface.com. Please save this email address as a contact to prevent notification emails from being marked as spam.
