Whatever the cost of our libraries, the price is cheap compared to that of an ignorant nation. -- Walter Cronkite

FRIENDS OF THE BERGENFIELD LIBRARY

Dear Friend,

While every dollar counts these days, every dollar has always counted to the Friends of the Bergenfield Library.

When times are tough, people turn to their libraries. Families bring their children for a cost-free outing. Seniors come for educational programs. Job-seekers use the library's career and resume information. Small business owners use the library's business resources to locate suppliers or to develop new markets. Adult learners improve their English language skills.

And remember books, movies, magazines and Internet and wireless access at the library are free. Yes, FREE!

For almost 50 years the Friends, a non-profit independent volunteer organization, has shared your belief in the value of the Library to our community.

As a Friend you'll receive a monthly library calendar, a newsletter and advance notice of special events and programs. (E.g., Friends are allowed into our book sales a full day before the general public.)

The Friends meet the second Thursday of each month at 1 p.m. Feel free to stop in at a meeting.

Your support is always valued, but, in these hard times your support means even more. Please join us.
